Website Privacy Policy

Health Media Lab does not collect or store any of your data on our website. However, WIX, our webhost, uses cookies that are essential to run this website. A list of those can be found below. These strictly necessary cookies are required for a website's basic functions. These cookies save information required for the website to function properly. These cookies do not collect personal information and are not used by Health Media Lab, only by WIX for site functionality. Our website contains links to other websites. Visiting those websites is not governed by our Website Privacy Policy agreement. If you are a client accessing our ethical review services using the HML IRB Online Application Portal, that site is hosted by a third party entity, Sitero. Information on their privacy policy can be found here: Sitero Privacy Policy | Contract Research Organization CRO.
